Project Supervisor

Dr. Jonathan Perry

Jon Perry was born in Bristol, UK, in 1962. He studied Physics at Imperial College (BSc 1983, PhD 1988). He joined Space Department in what was then known as the Royal Aircraft Establishment as a Senior Research Fellow in 1986 and has continued to work in the scientific branch of the Civil Service ever since. Jon is now a Principal Scientist in Sensors and Countermeasures Department of Dstl (the Defence Science and Technology Laboratory – RAE's successor organisation). His research interest is the imaging by aircraft and spaceborne reconnaissance radar of a range of ocean surface features, such as surface expressions of bathymetry and of internal waves, surface waves and wave wakes.
